3. The principal yard of APMC, Azadpur is divided in 3-parts namely, New Subzi Mandi (NSM), Cement Godown Area and New Fruit Mandi (NFM). The traders of Barafkhana, Old Delhi were shifted (July 12, 1975) to NSM, Azadpur on the DDA allotted shops. The DDA maintained the mandi till Dec 1, 1979 where after it was handed over to the APMC. Later on more area was allotted to APMC by the DDA on which NFM was set up. Thus, the NSM area has DDA allotted shops, and the Cement Godown and NFM area has open auction sheds. The sub-yard Okhla also has DDA constructed shops and auction sheds. The Kela siding, Azadpur land is taken on lease from the Indian Railways where commodities (Banana, Orange and Mango) come in railway wagons from Southern part of India and are traded there itself. The Sub-Yard Mangol-Puri, which was earlier known as Delhi Fodder Market Committee has been declared as Sub-Yard of APMC (MNI) Azadpur after de-notification of DFMC for trading of fruits and vegetables. The market is spreads over in 11 acres of land in Mangol-Puri area. Presently there is no trading of fruits and vegetables at Sub-Yard Mangol-Puri.
